Keep my exact face and body features from the given picture.

A hyper-realistic portrait of me sitting at a wooden table, leaning slightly forward with one arm resting on the table. I am wearing a black denim jacket with rolled-up sleeves, and inside the jacket, a white t-shirt. On my wrist, I have a smartwatch with a dark green strap. My head is tilted slightly, with one hand resting casually and comfortably on my forehead. My hair is styled and same like uploaded image
